

A Feynman diagram representing a fermion propagator. It consists of a horizontal line with a solid black triangle pointing to the right in the middle. Below this line, there is a shorter horizontal arrow pointing to the right, with the letter p centered underneath it.

$$= \frac{i(\not{p} + m)}{p^2 - m^2 + i\epsilon}$$